The Noble Eightfold Path - Buddhism

The right path taken is a choice anyone can make, but it requires an explicit reason, a precise purpose, and a yearning motivation to walk the journey of life in the shadow of God. In this book, The Right Path Taken, poetry chronicles the rewards of change.
